PROFILE

I'm an undergraduate IT student focused on full-stack and mobile development, with a strong foundation in Flutter. I thrive in collaborative environments, quickly mastering new tools and frameworks to solve problems and drive project success. My passion lies in creating innovative solutions, and I'm eager to bring my skills to a team where I can both contribute and continue to grow.

KEY PROJECTS

SEYONI - A Smart Workers Management Mobile App | Flutter, Node.js, Express.js, MongoDB, AWS, Git

A mobile app connecting users with home service providers. I designed the UI and developed key frontend pages, including the admin dashboard.

Portfolio Site | Angular, Node.js, Express.js, MogoDB

Created a personal portfolio website to highlight my projects, skills, and certifications.

E-Commerce Restaurant Web Application | HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, MySQL

A web app with login, registration, add-to-cart, and checkout features for streamlined online ordering.

Library Management System | Java

A command-line interface (CLI) application that enables users to add or remove books and check their availability.
